2. INTRODUCTION

- 2.1. In terms of section 32 of the Constitution "everyone has the right of access to any information held by the State; and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights".

- 2.2. PAIA gives effect to section 32, providing for the procedures in terms of which access to information may be requested and the grounds upon which such requests may be refused. These grounds seek to strike a balance between the right to access information on the one hand, and the reasonable protection of privacy and commercial confidentiality, on the other hand.
- 2.3. In compliance with its duties as a “public body” in terms of section 1(xxiii)(b)(ii) of PAIA, the CID NPC has compiled this manual to assist members of the public in exercising their rights under PAIA. The Manual outlines: (1) the CID NPC’s (i) establishment and statutory mandate; (ii) structure, functions and objectives; and (iii) contact details; (2) The procedure for requesting information from the CID NPC; (3) An outline of the CID NPC’s records, identifying information that is automatically available and information that may be requested under PAIA; and (4) Fees payable when requesting access to any of these records.
- 2.4. This Manual is available for inspection, free of charge, at the CID NPC’s offices (see para 5 below). The Manual can also be accessed on the website: www.lmrid.capetown. For any information not contained in this manual, kindly contact the Information Officer identified below.

3. ESTABLISHMENT AND STATUTORY MANDATE

- 3.1. To promote urban development, the Municipal Property Rates Act authorises Council to establish a City Improvement District (“CID”),¹ and to levy an additional rate on rateable properties located in the CID to finance improvements and upgrades of the public spaces within the district.²
- 3.2. The Council has enacted a By-law to give effect to this power, providing for a community-driven process in establishing such an area, referred to as a City Improvement District (“CID”). Applicants must prepare a business plan, outlining among other things proposed capital improvements and improved or upgraded municipal services. The By-law further stipulates that a non-profit company must be incorporated to carry out a CID’s business plan.³
- 3.3. On 28 April 2016 Council resolved to establish the geographical area depicted in Annexure “A” attached hereto as the Little Mowbray and Rosebank Improvement District CID.⁴
- 3.4. The CID NPC was incorporated for the sole purpose of implementing the CID’s business plan, as approved by Council.
- 3.5. In accordance with section 20 of the By-law, the City monitors the CID NPC’s compliance with the By-Law, with any guidelines or policies adopted by the City and any agreements entered into between the CID NPC and the City.

² Section 22(a)(b) of the Municipal Property Rates Act.

³ Section 8 of the By-law.

⁴ In terms of section 8(1) of the By-Law, read with section 22 of the Rates Act.

- 3.6. All registered owners of property located in the CID and liable for payment of the additional rate are entitled to become members of the CID NPC.⁵

6. FUNCTIONS

- 6.1. The CID NPC's main function is to provide community-based private urban management within the public areas of the CID by:
 - 6.1.1. improving and upgrading the CID through the provision of improved or expanded municipal services within its geographical area, which may include the management of municipal capital assets located within such area;
 - 6.1.2. encouraging private investment in the CID;
 - 6.1.3. facilitating a co-operative approach between the City and the private sector in the provision of municipal services;
 - 6.1.4. promoting urban renewal, particularly in distressed areas within the CID; and
 - 6.1.5. promoting economic growth and sustainable development, and in this way assisting the Council in fulfilling its objects and developmental duties as set out in its Integrated Development Plan contemplated in the Systems Act and the MFMA.
- 6.2. The CID NPC may fulfil these functions by performing the following activities in the CID:
 - 6.2.1. supplementary sanitation services, e.g. cleaning sidewalks and public roads; emptying public trash bins; removing graffiti, and collecting municipal waste;
 - 6.2.2. public safety services within the public areas of the CID (excluding policing interventions to prevent crime), e.g.:
 - 6.2.2.1. conducting foot and vehicle patrols of public areas within the CID in order to identify, monitor and report violations of City by-laws to the relevant City Departments;
 - 6.2.2.2. establishing effective communication networks with the City's Safety and Security Directorate, the South African Police Service ("SAPS"), the Community Police Forum ("CPF") and the local Neighbourhood Watch;
 - 6.2.2.3. Reporting crime and summoning the SAPS immediately to incidents of serious crime;
 - 6.2.2.4. installing additional lighting in public areas;
 - 6.2.2.5. reporting hazardous street conditions to the relevant City Departments;
 - 6.2.2.6. monitoring street vendors to ensure public safety and reporting violations of relevant City by-laws to the relevant City Department; and

- 6.2.2.7. conducting public education and awareness campaigns in the CID in relation to crime prevention strategies.
- 6.2.3. improving and maintaining municipal capital assets and infrastructure, subject to Council approval, e.g. installing and upgrading street lighting; illuminating street signs; installing street furniture (such as public benches); creating more public open spaces;
- 6.2.4. horticultural services, e.g. planting trees; installing sidewalk planters; maintaining street verges;
- 6.2.5. supporting community development and anti-poverty initiatives;
- 6.2.6. marketing and promoting the CID; and
- 6.2.7. other public benefit activities.

10. REQUEST PROCEDURE

Who May Request Access?

10.1. Upon satisfying the statutory requirements detailed below, a requester may access records held by the CID NPC.

10.2. In terms of s. 11(1) of PAIA, a requester must be given access to a record of a public body, such as the CID NPC, if:

10.2.1. That requester complies with all the procedural requirements under PAIA governing requests for access to that record; and

10.2.2. Access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of Part 2 of PAIA.

10.3. PAIA distinguishes between two types of requesters:

10.3.1. Personal requester: The CID NPC will provide the requested information, or give access to any record with regard to the requester's personal information. While the personal requester does not have to pay an access fee, the CID NPC will charge the prescribed fee for reproduction of the information.

10.3.2. Other requester: This requester is entitled to request access to information on third parties. However, the CID NPC is not obliged automatically to grant access. The requester must comply with all procedural requirements for access under PAIA, including payment of a request and access fee.

Form of Request

10.4. A link to Form 02, titled 'Request for Access to Record,' is included in this document for ease of reference

10.5. Requests must be addressed to the CID NPC's Information Officer.

10.6. The application must contain sufficient details to enable the CID NPC to identify:

10.6.1. The record/(s) requested;

10.6.2. The identity of the requester and his/her representative, if any;

10.6.3. The form of access required;

10.6.4. The requester's contact details in the Republic of South Africa; and

- 10.6.5. Whether the requester wishes to be informed of the decision in any manner other than in writing, such as by telephone, fax or email.
- 10.7. In the event the requester is unable to read or write or has a disability, the request may be made orally. In such a case, the Information Officer must complete the form on behalf of the requester.
- 10.8. The form must be accompanied by the prescribed request fee.

Fees

- 10.9. PAIA provides for the payment of two types of fees:
 - 10.9.1. The request fee: a standard non-refundable fee, payable prior to consideration of request. This fee is not payable in the event the request pertains to a record containing personal information about the requester. The request fee is currently R35.00.
 - 10.9.2. The access fee: if the request is granted, this fee is payable for the reproduction of records and for time in excess of one (1) hour to search and prepare the records for disclosure. These fees are indicated in form 03.
- 10.10. Upon receipt of the request, the Information Officer, shall by notice require the requester (excluding a personal requester), to pay the prescribed request fee before further processing the request.
- 10.11. If, having undertaken the search for the record, it becomes apparent that the preparation of the record for disclosure (including arrangements to make it available in the requested form), is likely to exceed six (6) hours, the Information Officer may require the requester to pay a deposit of one third of the anticipated access fee.

Exemptions from Paying Fees

- 10.12. Requesters whose annual income (after permissible deductions), does not exceed R14,712.00 (if single), or R27,192.00 (if married), are exempted from paying the access fee contemplated in para 10.9.2 above.
- 10.13. Where the cost of collecting any fee contemplated in para 10.9 exceeds the amount charged, such fee does not apply.

Decision and Notice

- 10.14. The CID NPC will process the request within thirty (30) days, unless the request raises considerations that require an extension of this time period.
- 10.15. Where an extension of the 30-day time period is required, the requester shall be notified of the Information Officer's decision in this regard, together with the reasons for such extension.

10.16. The requester will be notified of the Information Officer's decision in the manner specified in the request form.

10.17. If the Information Officer fails to give the decision on the request within the 30-day period or within any extended period, the Information Officer will be deemed to have refused the request.

Records not Found/ do not Exist

10.18. In the event the Information Officer is, notwithstanding all reasonable steps, unable to find the requested record, he/she will by way of affidavit or affirmation inform the requester accordingly and provide full reasons.

Refusal of Access to Records

10.19. Access to a record may be refused on one or more of the grounds contemplated in Part 2, Chapter 4 of PAIA.

Remedies

10.20. Should the requester be dissatisfied with the decision of the Information Officer, the requester may apply to Court for judicial review. Under PAJA, such an application must be made within 180 days after the date on which the requester was informed of the decision and the reasons for it, or might reasonably have been expected to become aware of the decision and reasons.

11. UPDATING THIS MANUAL

11.1. This Manual will be updated as and when necessary, but at least on an annual basis.

11.2. The most recent version of the Manual will be available on the CID NPC's website at www.lmrid.capetown.

11.3. A copy of the Manual (and updates), will be lodged with the SAHRC.
